In the Support The Support The McCloskey Interest The Support The Su Tucson is certainly taking to professionals. "I am confident that every thing will be all right within a day or two."

That's all the news McCloskey has seit out from Douglas since his arrival there on Thesiday morning. However, Mack is a hustler from 'way hack and he is not easily discouraged. With Nogales willing to grat the sixth franchise in the Elo Grande league if Douglas fails to get into line, the officials of the bearte are not worrying. Players are arriving every day at all the cities in the circuit and the leams are all getting practice. Hurley how has seven men at Las Croces, as Joe Saston showed up Thursday, but he will take up a couple of the El Paso players for the game Friday afternoon with A. and M. college. George Duddy will likely go up to fill out Bill's infield, while one of the outfielders will aso belo him out. The remainder of Hurley's team will be there on Eriday or Saturday for his game on Sunday. The team from company B of the Sixth infinity is very anxious to hook up with the professionals in the game here on Sunday and they may be given the date. Capt. Smith declares that he has as good a team as can be found in the couthwest and points to their excellent secord this season as proof of his statement. If company B of the Sixth and the erack 18th champions only get toxother on Priday and decide which is the better agargation, it would be easy work to pick the team which will men the professionals at the new park on Sunday afternoon.

Bill Hurley came down from Las Croces Thursday morning for a tak with McCloskey, as he expected the El Paso manager would be back from bounter. The satisfied that McCloskey is getting results at Douglas, be accounted to the southwest and points to their excellent secord this season is proof of his attalement. If company B of the Sixth and the erack 18th champions on the professionals at the new proposition of the professionals at the new proposition is proof of the passification in the southwest of pick the team which will be considered with the southwest

"Beck's" Amen Corner

MANAGERS in the Rio Grande league have advanced the theory that the national association rules do not require an individual player salary limit in minor leagues. These managers want to guess again, for while the national association leaves the limit to the league, there must be a limit. Herb Hester, of Phoenix, please note.

Little Rock didn't lose on Wednes-day. It rained.

INTERNATIONAL leaguers will get 1 going by spaums this year. Toronto opens at Richmond next Tuesday; Montreal opens at Newark and Rochester at Jersey City on Thursday while Buffalo will be entertained at Providence on Wednesday. The Internationals have a good chance to go under for keeps some time during the present season.

MINNESOTA is likely to have tenround boxing bouts. The senate ing some slight changes. When the house concurs in these changes the bill will go to the governor and it is expected that he will sign it.

DON'T FORGET that the date of the Southwestern field and track championships is May 15 and the place is Washington park.

PRESIDENT WILSON lost his look of worry when he was pitching out the first ball in the opening game at Washington. The photographers caught him with an almost "youthful smile" as he heaved out a ball to Walter Johnson.

"TWENTY-THREE "phenums" were released outright or to minor league clubs by the majors, according to the last official bulletin of the national association of professional baseball clubs. Nine went free and 14 have "strings tied to 'em" so they can be yanked back to the majors if they look good later on. But 23 is "skidoo" all right.

EW YORK. April 22.—Once upon a time—in the days before he blossomed forth as a $11,000 heauty—Reuben Marquard was on the roster of a half club in the middle west that was very much on the ragged eige as far as funds were concerned. The state has been turned a deaf ear. And then the splayers put into execution a little trick that separated Rube from half of his roll. The prayers were concerned. The prayers state hands, the ban of a measure of the players were overtue and the splayers were very much embarranced financially.

At this criffent juncture, some kind person sent a $50 money order to Marquard the leaf of the game, and the services of a small boy to wear the cap and deliver measures. Receives Leagthy Offer.
